Re: Hough v. Maraj and Petty, Case No. 21-cv-04568-ENV-JRC

Dear Judge Vitaliano:

I do not want to subject the Court to a deluge of submissions concerning scheduling, and I certainly am not going to rise to the bait of writing letters demonstrating why Mr. Blackburn and Mr. Gordon are engaging in additional sanctionable conduct by sending correspondence to the Court filled with false and/or intentionally misleading accusations. Instead, I will respond to their accusations under oath by serving my sanctions motion on them (or filing them if the Court refers the motion to Magistrate Judge Cho) by no later than Wednesday, January 26, 2021.

If, after reviewing my motion, Mr. Gordon and Mr. Blackburn believe they truly need until March to respond to it, I will consent to whatever date in March which they request.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ Judd Burstein
